

Memphis, Tennessee Chapter 61

Speaker Series

Most Common Security Failures and How to Reduce an Organizations Risk

FEATURING: Joe Delia, Senior Director of Security Consulting Services at Whelan Security

WHEN: March 19, 2019 from 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Where: Venice Kitchen, 368 Perkins Extd, Memphis, TN 38117

This presentation highlights some of the most common security failures that cause an organizations risk. The presenter, Joseph Delia, serves as a security consultant and an expert witness for a well-known law firm that represents insurance carriers in security-related litigation.

Discussed will be the top three strategies that plaintiff's lawyers will use to "attack" during litigation related to a security failure. You don't want to hear these strategies for the first time when you are being deposed in a lawsuit. Now is the time to prepare!

Speaker Event is FREE to all attendees, Lunch is $15. RSVP to Brian Metcalf: brian.f.metcalf@pfizer.com

Find more ASIS Information and Events at <http://www.memphis-asis.org/>

About Joe Delia

Joe Delia, Senior Director of Security Consulting Services at Whelan Security, is a seasoned security consultant who brings nearly three decades of law enforcement and investigative experience to the company. Prior to joining Whelan, Joe worked in public law enforcement, retiring as Deputy Chief of Police. Additionally, he served as an Interview and Interrogation Instructor for the United States Department of Justice, and as a Task Force Agent assigned to the FBI, DEA and IRS-CID task forces. He was awarded the national "Top Cop" award, and prestigious Directors Award for Distinguished Service from the United States Attorney General. Contact Joe at 314.646.3868 or jdelia@whelansecurity.com.